First Russian LGBTQ drama

2019, Russia, 95 min

by Ksenia Ratushnaya

Film is about the impossibility of love. It's the story of Nikita, a gay teen who has a crush on the most popular boy in his school now and love story of a transgender dancer Nina and a Soviet general, set in 1985.

– Outlaw

P.S. "Sure it would be nice if a gay filmmaker would have made this Russian LGBT-film. But they didn't. So I did."

– Ksenia Ratushnaya
